

INGENIA stands for excellent material logistics and materials handling. We supply plants for hot-dip galvanizing, as well as automatic crane solutions for individual customer requests. To strengthen our team in Südpark Linz Austria we are looking for a dedicated

Mechanical Senior Construction Engineer (m/f)

full-time

Your tasks:

- Responsible for customer projects from concept development and calculation to detailed design of individual components
- Customization of existing components
- Close cooperation with international customers/suppliers
- Through your experience and innovative power, you significantly shape the further development of the company

Your profile:

- Mechanical engineer and development engineer with practical experience and technical education (at least HTL)
- You have a passion for technology and creativity in new tasks
- You enjoy working in a team and support young colleagues
- Good knowledge of a common CAD program, preferably Solid Edge

We offer:

Diversified tasks
Pleasant working atmosphere in our new office
Gross salary according on experience and qualification

Interested?

Please send your application letter with a photo to office@ingenia.at INGENIA GmbH, Bremenstraße 15-17, 4030 Linz, Austria
Tel +43 732 701010, www.ingenia.at